

St. Edmund Preparatory High School recently held its 11th annual Walkathon in Marine Park . Mr. Kelly's freshmen were excited that it was their first walkathon in high school and the seniors were sad because it was their last walkathon as a class. All students wore Edmund T-shirts and were treated to breakfast after the walk. The money raised will be for a new school bus.

Pictured:

Mr. Kelly's, physical education teacher, freshmen homeroom

Seniors gather after the walk

Mr. Wagner's, science teacher, senior homeroom gather for one last photo before they walk

