

Good SPORTS

by Jim Mancari

St. Edmund's Louison Stars for St. Joseph's

St. Joseph's College's basketball squad, Clinton Hill, has received a jolt of energy early this season from former St. Edmund's Prep, Sheepshead Bay, standout forward David Louison.

The six-foot four-inch freshman has averaged a double-double (11.3 points and 10.0 rebounds per game) through the Bears first four games. He also leads the team with seven blocked shots.

As a senior at St. Edmund's, Louison was a unanimous CHSAA All-A South Division selection and a Basketball Coaches Association of New York top-50 selection.

▲ St. Edmund graduate, David Louison, is off to a fast start at St. Joseph's College, Clinton Hill, averaging 11.3 pts. and 10 rebounds for the first four games of the young basketball season.